PRIZE COMPETITIONS

INQUIRIES regarding prizes, and communications to the faculty Committee on Prizes, may be sent to the Office of Dean of the Faculty. The general supervision of prize awards is the responsibility of the faculty Committee on Prizes. Except where otherwise specified, committees for the awarding of individual prizes are appointed by the President, unless the responsibility is delegated.

For reference to schools and colleges administering prizes, see the Contents. Individual prizes are listed in the Index, page 31. A summary of prizes open to students in more than one school and college, indicating who may compete for the prizes, is on page 4.

In this Announcement are included the names of all regularly established prizes that are open to competition by students in Cornell University. Those prizes for which students of more than one college of the University may compete are described at length in the first section of the Announcement. Those prizes which are open to competition by the students of a single college, school, or department are described briefly in the second section.

PRIZES OPEN TO STUDENTS OF MORE THAN ONE COLLEGE OR SCHOOL

For prizes in this group, an eligible undergraduate student is defined as "any person who, in the term in which the prize is awarded, is registered in Cornell University as a candidate for the first degree and who has not already received an academic degree that would entitle him to register in the Graduate School."

A graduate student eligible to compete for a prize is, unless otherwise indicated, defined as "any person registered in the Graduate School of Cornell University in the terms in which the prize is awarded."

PRIZES FOR ESSAYS AND POETRY

Unless otherwise specified all offerings for competition shall meet the following requirements. Failure to observe any of these requirements will be considered sufficient reason to disqualify an offering.

1. Former winners of a prize shall not be eligible for subsequent competition for that prize.

2. The offering shall be typewritten and readily legible. It shall be a ribbon copy on one side of the paper only, and it shall be double-spaced. The paper shall be of good quality and 8½ by 11 inches in size.

3. Minor corrections only may be made in writing; corrections involving five or more words must be typewritten.

4. Each essay or poem must be signed with an assumed name. The real name of the competitor is to be enclosed in a sealed envelope, superscribed with the assumed name.

6 PRIZE COMPETITIONS

5. Offerings shall be presented in a suitable folder. Pages shall be loose, not stapled or clipped together.

6. The essays or poems and the envelopes are to be deposited with the Registrar at or before 12 o'clock noon of April 15, or at or before the same time on April 16 in the event that April 15 falls on a Sunday.

7. The essays and poems shall be read and the prize awarded by a committee of three members of the instructing staff appointed by the President from the various faculties as provided in the various deeds of gift or rules for awards.

8. (This provision does not apply to the Moses Coit Tyler Prize.) The successful essay or poem shall be deposited by the Dean of the University Faculty in the University Library, and the Library's rules regarding the circulation of manuscripts shall apply thereto. The essay or poem shall be typewritten in a way suitable for deposit in the Library and shall be fastened within a manila cover or otherwise bound. The University reserves the right to publish the essay.

9. In case none of the essays or poems submitted in any given year shall, in the judgment of the committee, reach a sufficiently high degree of excellence, the prize shall not be awarded. (See provisions of the Guilford Essay Prize for an alternate award for that prize.)

10. Unsuccessful essays and poems shall be returned by the judges to the Registrar, who will upon request return them to their authors.

THE BARNES SHAKESPEARE PRIZE, founded in 1887 by Mrs. Alfred Smith Barnes of Brooklyn, consists of $100.

1. Competition is open to all undergraduates in the University.

2. Each competitor shall submit a prose essay of his own composition, not more than eight thousand words in length.

3. In accordance with the wish of the founder, the essays must be upon the writings of Shakespeare. The choice of subject is left to the discretion of the writer.

4. The committee to read the essays shall be members of the faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences.

THE CORSON BROWNING PRIZE, founded in 1902 by Professor Hiram Corson, consists of a gold medal of the value of $100, to be awarded annually for the best competitive essay on Robert Browning. The prize will be given in money if the winner prefers.

1. Competition shall be open to junior, senior, and graduate students.

2. The subjects shall be assigned and announced by the head of the Department of English in accordance with the directions of the founder contained in his letter of donation.

3. The committee to read the essays shall be members of the faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences.

THE CORSON FRENCH PRIZE, founded in 1902 by Professor Hiram Corson in memory of his wife, Caroline Rollin Corson, consists of a gold medal of the value of $150, to be awarded annually for the most distinguished essay on a subject in either French philology or French literature. At the option of the winner, a cash prize of $150 may be awarded in lieu of the medal. The committee administering the prize may, in its discretion, make an award of less than $150 for an essay of merit which does not reach the level of distinction required for the medal award.

THE GOETHE PRIZE of $90, endowed in 1935 by Ludwig Vogelstein, is awarded annually for the best essay on Goethe or on German literature. Particular subjects are suggested annually by the Department of German Literature.

1. The competition is open to juniors, seniors, and graduate students.
2. The essays may be written in the English or in the German language.

THE GUILFORD ESSAY PRIZE, founded in 1902 by the late James B. Guilford to promote "a high standard of excellence in English prose composition," consists of $150.

1. Competition is open to all undergraduates in the University. (Graduate students may compete under certain provisions. See page 20.)
2. Each competitor must submit a prose essay of his own composition, not less than five thousand nor more than ten thousand words in length.
3. The choice of the subject is left to the discretion of the writer.

THE MARY B. KNOBLAUGH PRIZE was founded in 1952 by George Garfunkel and Miss Elinor Byrns, as executors under the will of the donor, to provide an annual award of $100 for the best essay discussing the history or the problems, present and future, of the struggle for equal rights for women.

1. Competition is open to all students of the University.
2. The choice of a subject within the field is left to the discretion of the writer.
3. If in any year no essay is deemed worthy of the prize, the award shall be made in a subsequent year.

THE LUANA L. MESSENGER-HENRY CHALMERS PRIZES, founded in 1902 by Hiram J. Messenger and supplemented in 1959 by Mrs. Henry Chalmers, consist of a first prize of $350 and a second prize of $150 in cash to be awarded annually, in accordance with the terms of the gifts, to those students of the University who submit essays "giving evidence of the best research and most fruitful thought in the field of human progress or the evolution of civilization during some period in human history as a whole."

1. Competition is open to all undergraduate and graduate students.
2. The choice of subject within the field prescribed by the donors, as quoted above, is left to the discretion of the writer; but at the same time the essays are expected to manifest original research, to embody a sense of history, and to possess literary quality.

3. The essay shall contain not more than ten thousand words.

THE MORRISON POETRY PRIZE, founded in 1909 by James T. Morrison of Ithaca and continued by Professor Morris Bishop of Cornell University, consists of $100 in cash to be awarded annually for the best original poem or poems.

1. Competition is open to any undergraduate of the University.
2. The poem or poems offered in competition shall contain not less than one hundred lines.
3. If in the opinion of the committee of award two competitors are equal or nearly equal in merit, the prize may be equally or appropriately divided; but in event of the committee's deeming no competitor worthy of a prize, no second prize shall be awarded.
4. Although a winner of the prize shall not be eligible for subsequent competition, this shall not disqualify competitors who have shared the prize.

THE SHERMAN-BENNETT PRIZE was founded in 1905 by Philo Sherman-Bennett of New Haven, who, by provision in his will, bequeathed to William J. Bryan of Lincoln, Nebraska, a fund to endow prizes in twenty-five colleges or universities to be selected by him. The prize, consisting of $100, is to be awarded "for the best essay discussing the principles of free government."

1. Competition is open to all undergraduate and graduate students.
2. The choice of subject within the field prescribed by the founder, as quoted above, is left to the discretion of the writer.

THE MOSES COIT TYLER PRIZE, founded in 1936 by the late Willard Austen in honor of Moses Coit Tyler, is awarded annually for the publication of one or more studies, by graduate or undergraduate students, in the fields of American history, literature, and folklore.

1. When available funds permit, awards shall consist of publication in the Cornell Series in American History, Literature, and Folklore, rather than of payments for manuscripts by royalty or otherwise.
2. Competition shall be open to all students registered in any college or school of the University located at Ithaca.
3. The committee of three appointed by the President both to make the award and to edit the series shall include one member appointed on recommendation by the chairman of the Department of English and one on recommendation by the chairman of the Department of History. Each member shall serve for a term of three years.
4. Only scholarly contributions to the interpretation of American history and literature, editions of documents hitherto unpublished, and edited collections of folklore are to be considered for awards.

5. Not later than the second week of January in each year the committee on awards shall make appropriate announcement as to the nature of the competition for that year.

PRIZES FOR PUBLIC SPEAKING

THE FUERTES MEMORIAL PRIZES IN PUBLIC SPEAKING, established in 1912, consist of several prizes totaling $200. They are awarded by a committee of seven judges to members of the third, fourth, and fifth year classes of the Colleges of Architecture and Engineering for proficiency in public speaking.

THE '86 MEMORIAL PRIZE, the income of a sum of money left as a memorial by the Class of 1886 and amounting to $100 annually, is an undergraduate prize in original public speaking, awarded at a public contest held in the spring of each year.

1. Any sophomore or junior who is enrolled in the elementary course in public speaking (Speech and Drama 101) or who has completed the course may, if he has not once before competed for this prize, become a competitor.

2. The Department of Speech and Drama announces the terms of a preliminary competition each year. There is no limitation upon subject. At the preliminary trials, usually held near the end of April, not more than ten speakers are selected for a public contest held at a later date fixed by the Department in consultation with the Committee on Scheduling of Public Events.

3. Members of the Department supervise the preparation of those selected for the final contest, with a view to improvement in expression and delivery; verbatim memorization is not required.

4. A committee designated by the Department under authority of the President awards the prize, taking into account substance, structure and style, and delivery.

THE '94 MEMORIAL PRIZES, established by the Class of 1894, consist of a first prize of $125 and a second prize of $75, and are undergraduate prizes in debate to be awarded at a public contest held in the spring term of each year.

1. Any member of the junior or senior class in any of the colleges of Cornell University who does not already hold a baccalaureate degree from this institution or from any other of like rank and who is registered in the term in which the prize is awarded may become a competitor.

2. The Department of Speech and Drama chooses the question for debate and announces the terms of a preliminary competition each year. At the preliminary trials not more than six debaters are selected for a public contest held at a later date fixed by the Department in consultation with the Committee on Scheduling of Public Events. The date of the trials is usually near the middle of February.

3. Members of the Department supervise the preparation of those selected for the final contest.

4. A committee designated by the Department under authority of the President of the University awards the prize to the most effective debater, account being taken of thought, expression, and delivery.

10 PRIZE COMPETITIONS

5. Any undergraduate who has already taken the prize may be selected by the preliminary committee as an additional speaker, but the prize may not be awarded to him. Other competitors, however, if still undergraduates, may compete a second time.

THE WOODFORD PRIZES, founded in 1870 by the Hon. Stewart Lyndon Woodford, consist of a first prize of $125 and a second prize of $75 and are given annually for the best English oration, both matter and manner of delivery being taken into account.

1. The competition is open to any student in good standing who is registered in the term in which the prize is awarded, who does not already hold a baccalaureate degree from this institution or from any other of like rank, and who is to fulfill the requirements for graduation before the next contest. No student may compete more than once.

2. The Department of Speech and Drama announces the terms of a preliminary competition in the spring of each year. Although there is no limitation upon subject, generally a conference on choice of subject and the submission of a manuscript are required prior to the preliminary hearing. At the preliminary trials, usually held near the middle of April, not more than six speakers are selected for a public contest held at a later date fixed by the Department in consultation with the Committee on the Scheduling of Public Events.

3. Members of the Department supervise the preparation of those selected for the final contest, with a view to improvement in expression and delivery; verbatim memorization is not required.

4. A committee designated by the Department under authority of the President of the University awards the prize, taking into account substance, structure and style, and delivery.

PRIZES FOR PLAYWRITING AND MUSIC

THE FORBES HEERMANS PRIZE IN PLAYWRITING was established in 1931 by the bequest of Forbes Heermans of the class of 1878. A first prize of $100 is offered annually for the best one-act play on an American theme. A second prize of $50 is offered for the second-best one-act play on an American theme.

1. Competition is open to any student of the University who is registered in Cornell University in the term in which the prize is awarded and who has not received a baccalaureate or first degree.

2. A prize shall be awarded only for a play on an American theme, as the terms of the bequest require.

3. A competitor may submit as many as three plays, but no competitor shall be eligible for more than one prize.

4. A winner of the first prize shall not be eligible for subsequent competition.

5. Plays offered in competition shall be typewritten on one side of paper 8½ by 11 inches in size, and double-spaced. Minor corrections only may be made in writing; corrections involving five or more words must be typewritten. Each play must be signed with an assumed name. The real name of the competitor is to be enclosed in a sealed envelope superscribed with the assumed name.

6. The manuscript, in flat sheets, and the sealed envelope are to be enclosed together in a wrapper superscribed with the name of the competition and deposited with the Registrar at or before 12 o'clock noon of February 1, or at or before noon of February 2 in the event that February 1 falls on a Sunday.

7. The plays shall be examined and the prize awarded by a committee of three appointed each year by the President from the University faculty.

8. The manuscript copies of the successful plays shall be deposited by the Dean of the University Faculty in the University Library, and the Library's rules governing the circulation of manuscripts shall apply thereto. The plays shall be typewritten in a way suitable for deposit in the Library and shall be fastened within a manila cover or otherwise bound. The University reserves the right of publishing the plays and of producing them through the University Theatre.

9. In case none of the plays submitted shall, in the committee's judgment, reach a sufficiently high degree of excellence, the prize shall not be awarded.

THE WHCU PRIZES FOR DRAMA AND MUSIC, established in 1955 by the University Radio Station, consist of two prizes of $100 each and radio performance on WHCU for the best original radio play and the best original musical composition for radio.

1. The competition is open to any student enrolled at Cornell throughout the academic year in which the prizes are awarded.

2. The play shall be no more than 28 minutes in length. Further details should be obtained from the Department of English or the Department of Speech and Drama.

3. The musical composition should be no more than 13½ minutes in length. Further details should be obtained from the Department of Music.

4. All entries shall be deposited with the manager of WHCU at or before 12 o'clock noon of February 1, or at or before noon of February 2 in the event that February 1 falls on a Sunday.

5. The competition for the drama award will be judged by a committee consisting of a representative of WHCU, a representative of the Department of English, and a representative of the Department of Speech and Drama. The competition for the music award will be judged by a committee consisting of a representative of WHCU and two representatives of the Department of Music. In each instance the representative of WHCU shall act as chairman.

6. In years when there are several entries of exceptional quality, the radio station will award second and third prizes in the form of radio performances of these meritorious works.

7. The performance of all works will be in conjunction with the University's annual Festival of the Contemporary Arts.

PRIZES FOR OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS

THE GEORGE HARMON COXE AWARD IN AMERICAN LITERATURE, founded in 1951 by Mr. and Mrs. George H. Coxe in memory of their son, George Harmon Coxe, III, who was a student at Cornell University, is an annual award of $150 for distinguished work in American literature and creative writing.

12 PRIZE COMPETITIONS

1. Those eligible are men registered in the University as members of the sophomore, junior, or senior classes. Any student who wishes to be considered may consult the chairman of the Department of English before 12 o'clock noon of April 15, or before the same time on April 16 in the event that April 15 falls on a Sunday. Other students may also be nominated by members of the staff and will be invited to submit specimens of their written work.

2. In even-numbered years, the award will be made on the basis of outstanding ability in the study of American literature at Cornell, as revealed both through records in all pertinent courses and through written studies of suitable American writings or authors.

3. In odd-numbered years the award will be made on the basis of the student's achievements at Cornell in creative writing and related work.

4. The President of the University will appoint a committee of three to recommend the award.

5. If in any year no student's work is deemed worthy of the prize, the award will be made in a subsequent year.

THE FRANCES SAMPSON FINE ARTS PRIZE, founded in 1909 by Professor Martin Wright Sampson, is awarded annually "to that student in the University who shows the most intelligent appreciation of the graphic and plastic arts and of architecture." The prize is given, not for practical proficiency in painting, drawing, or designing, but for natural or acquired ability to appreciate artistic beauty. The prize, amounting to $100, is awarded under regulations administered by a faculty committee and is to be expended in books or reproductions.

1. The competition is open to any undergraduate or graduate student of the University.

2. The competition will consist of written criticism of original or reproduced masterpieces of the fine arts displayed in the room in which the competition is held. These criticisms are to be passed upon and the prize is to be awarded by a committee of three members of the University faculty appointed by the President.

3. The competition will be held between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. on the fourth Saturday in April, and students desiring to compete must give their names to the Registrar at or before 12 o'clock noon on April 15, or at or before the same time on April 16 in the event that April 15 falls on a Sunday.

4. If a prize is not awarded, or if only a portion of the income is used in any year, the unexpended balance may be added to the principal fund.

5. If at any time in the future, in the opinion of the Board of Trustees, it becomes inadvisable to grant the prize as provided for, the income of the fund may be used in any way the Trustees may determine for the advancement of the appreciation of fine arts in the University.

THE ANDREW DICKSON WHITE MUSEUM OF ART PURCHASE PRIZE, established in 1955 by an anonymous donor, consists of awards made in the form of purchases by the Museum of student work of exceptional quality produced in the painting and sculpture classes in the University.

1. Selections for the prize will be made by members of the Museum staff from the annual spring exhibition of student painting and sculpture held at the Museum, unless other arrangements are made for preliminary selection.

2. The selection for this exhibition is initially made by members of the relevant departments from work done in the classes.

3. During years when examples of sufficient merit are produced, multiple prizes may be awarded. If no work is considered to possess sufficient merit, no prize need be awarded.

4. All prize-winning works will become the property of the Museum.

THE J. G. WHITE PRIZES IN SPANISH. Through the generosity of James Gilbert White, Ph.D., '85, three prizes, established in 1914, each of the value of $100, are offered annually to English-speaking students for proficiency in Spanish and to Spanish-speaking students for proficiency in English.

1. Two prizes shall be awarded for excellence in Spanish to undergraduate students who, being residents or citizens of the United States, shall not have resided for more than fifteen months in any Spanish-speaking country. One of these two prizes shall be open to members of the junior and senior classes in the College of Engineering who are candidates for their first degree. No candidate shall be eligible unless he shall have completed successfully two terms of work in Spanish in Cornell University, or unless he be registered in his second term of work in Spanish in Cornell University.

2. The third prize shall be awarded for excellence in English to undergraduates from the Latin-American countries whose mother tongue is not English and who shall not have resided for more than four years in any English-speaking country.

3. All three prizes shall be awarded mainly on the basis of linguistic attainments, in determining which a general knowledge of the language, including its grammar and literature, shall count one-half, and ability to speak the language fluently and correctly shall count one-half.

4. The qualifications of the candidates shall be tested by a special examination. This examination, consisting of oral and written parts, shall provide tests in the requirements specified in provision 3.

5. In addition to these linguistic and literary qualifications, account shall be taken of the general merit and character of the candidates as students and citizens.

6. A successful competitor shall not thereafter be eligible for the prize.

7. The prizes shall be awarded by a committee of three professors appointed by the President from members of the University faculty, and this committee shall set and conduct the examination.

8. In case the standard of proficiency in Spanish (or English, as the case may be) is not, in the opinion of the committee, of sufficient excellence to merit an award, the prize (or prizes) shall not be awarded, and the unawarded money shall be added to the principal of the fund.

9. The committee shall report its award to the Dean of the University Faculty for record.

10. The examination for the prizes shall be held annually within the first two weeks of May at a time to be announced by the chairman of the committee of judges.

14 PRIZE COMPETITIONS

11. Candidates must hand their names to the Registrar in a sealed envelope superscribed "J. G. White Spanish Prize" at or before 12 o'clock noon of April 15, or at or before the same time on April 16 in the event that April 15 falls on Sunday.

SEIDENBERG AND KAUFMANN MEMORIAL AWARDS IN AMERICAN IDEALS. The Sophie L. Seidenberg award and the Felix Kaufmann award are given to the students who receive in the fall and spring terms, respectively, the highest scholastic rating in the Development of American Ideals course.* The awards consist of twenty-five-dollar gifts of books on American democracy.

THE FRANK H. VEDDER PRIZE of approximately $50, established in 1958, is awarded by the Department of Economics to the undergraduate who writes the best term paper in any economics course.

PRIZES OPEN TO STUDENTS IN THE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

THE ALPHA ZETA SCHOLARSHIP AWARD, consisting of a scholarship key, is awarded by the Alpha Zeta Fraternity to a freshman student who is enrolled in the four-year course in agriculture and has the best scholastic average. The name of the recipient is also inscribed on a plaque in the college office.

ALUMNI PRIZES consist of two prizes of $50 each, one being awarded to the junior with the highest cumulative average at the end of the sophomore year, and the other to the senior with the highest cumulative average at the end of the junior year.

THE BORDEN PRIZE of $300, established in 1944, is awarded by the Dean of the College of Agriculture to a senior who has taken two courses in dairying and who has the best scholastic record for three years.

THE BURPEE PRIZE IN HORTICULTURE of $100, established in 1945, is awarded at the beginning of the senior year and is divided equally between two students, one in the field of floriculture and ornamental horticulture, the other in vegetable crop production. To be eligible, the student must have completed Botany 31 or its equivalent and at least two other courses in the department concerned.

* Given in the School of Industrial and Labor Relations but open to all students except freshmen.

THE EASTMAN PRIZES FOR PUBLIC SPEAKING of $100 and $25, established in 1918, are awarded by a committee of judges to any regular or special student in the College of Agriculture for public speaking on country-life subjects.

THE PAUL H. GULDIN MEMORIAL PRIZES of $75, $50, and $25, are awarded to undergraduate students in the Colleges of Agriculture and Home Economics to encourage interest and participation in the development of a more adequate rural leadership. Awards are made twice a year for best original articles or stories published in the Cornell Countryman.

THE CHARLES LATHROP PACK FOUNDATION FORESTRY PRIZE of $40, established in 1923, is awarded by a committee appointed by the President to a resident student who has taken some course in forestry during the current college year and has written the best essay on forestry.

THE FRANK B. MORRISON MEMORIAL PRIZES, totaling $100 annually, are awarded to students winning top awards in the Students' Fitting and Showmanship Contest.

THE RICE DEBATE PRIZES of $100 and $25, established in 1927, are awarded by a committee of judges to any regular or special student in the College of Agriculture for a public debate on farm life problems.

THE RING MEMORIAL PRIZE of $50, established in 1919, is awarded to an outstanding sophomore student specializing in plant or horticultural science.

THE STEWARD CLEAN MILK PRIZE of $50, established in 1943, is awarded by a committee appointed by the Dean to an undergraduate student for the best essay on the production and distribution of high-quality milk.

PRIZES OPEN TO STUDENTS IN THE COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE

THE STUDENT MEDAL OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS is awarded to the member of the graduating class in Architecture who has maintained the best record throughout the entire course.

16 PRIZE COMPETITIONS

THE EDWARD PALMER YORK MEMORIAL PRIZES of $25 and $15 were established in 1931. They are awarded as first and second prizes in a problem competition in the first year design course.

THE BAIRD PRIZES of $25 and $15, established in 1927, are awarded as first and second prizes in a problem competition in the second year design course.

THE EDWIN A. SEIPP MEMORIAL PRIZES, one of $45 and one of $25, were established in 1948 by Mrs. E. A. Seipp in memory of her husband, an alumnus of the class of 1905. They are awarded as first and second prizes in a problem competition in the third year design course.

THE CLIFTON BECKWITH BROWN MEMORIAL PRIZE was established in 1901. It is a silver medal awarded by the faculty of the College of Architecture to the member of the graduating class having the highest standing in Architectural Design 107-110 inclusive. The award is withheld if the standard is not considerably higher than that required for graduation.

THE PAUL DICKINSON PRIZE of $25, established in 1927, is awarded by the faculty of the College of Architecture to the student in the first-year class who has attained the highest record. This prize is not awarded unless the record is well above the average of the first-year work in the College.

THE FUERTES MEMORIAL PRIZES IN PUBLIC SPEAKING.

THE NEW YORK SOCIETY OF ARCHITECTS' PRIZE, established in 1938, consists of a medal and a certificate. It is awarded by the faculty of the College of Architecture and a committee of the Society to a senior student who, in their opinion, is the leader of his class in construction as applied to architecture.

THE FACULTY MEDAL IN ART is awarded each year to the member of the graduating class in the curriculum in Art who, by his academic record and work in the studio, has, in the estimation of the faculty, shown the greatest promise of future achievement in the field of Art.

THE CHARLES GOODWIN SANDS MEMORIAL PRIZES, established in 1900, are silver and bronze medals awarded by the faculty of the College of Architecture to students in the College for theses of exceptional merit.

THE ALPHA RHO CHI MEDAL is awarded by Alpha Rho Chi, a professional architectural fraternity, to a student in the graduating class who has shown ability for leadership, has performed service to the school, and gives promise of professional merit through his attitude and personality.

PRIZES OPEN TO STUDENTS IN THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

THE GEORGE CHAPMAN CALDWELL PRIZE of $50, established in 1913, is awarded to the member of the senior class who has shown the greatest ability and progress in the study of the Classics (Greek, Latin, and Classics in translation).

THE BESS BERLOW COHAN PRIZE of $100, established in 1939, is awarded by a committee to the member of the senior class who has shown the greatest ability and progress in a combined study of Classics and English.

THE CLYDE A. DUNIWAY PRIZE of approximately $50, established in 1945, is awarded annually to the best student in the College of Arts and Sciences graduating with a major in history or government. Payment of the prize is made by the establishment at the Cornell Campus Store of a credit to be used in the purchase of books on history or government. The prize is awarded by a joint committee consisting of a representative of each of the two departments. The committee takes into account the student's academic record, his ability to express himself clearly in speaking and writing, and his scholarly approach. To be eligible for consideration a student must have had advanced courses in each field.

THE ANNE MacINTYRE LITCHFIELD PRIZE, established in 1956, is awarded annually to the outstanding woman senior majoring in history. The prize is in the form of books to the value of $250 and is awarded by the Department of History.

THE HAROLD ADLARD LOVENBERG PRIZE of $40, established in 1939, is awarded for general excellence, by the staff of the Department of Chemistry, to a member of the junior class in Arts and Sciences with a major in chemistry.

THE JULIETTE MacMONNIES COURANT PRIZE of approximately $40 was established in 1921. It is awarded by the Department of Romance Languages to a woman senior in the College of Arts and Sciences with a major in French who has made the best record for four years with special reference to facility of expression in French.

PRIZES OPEN TO STUDENTS IN THE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

THE JULIAN E. BUTTERWORTH AWARD of $100 to $200 is awarded, when merited, by a special committee of the School of Education for outstanding research in the administration of public schools.

THE E. LAURENCE PALMER AWARD of $75 or more is awarded, when merited, to a graduate student who, by scholarship and attitude, shows high potential for leadership in the scientific study of nature and who reveals high ability to communicate enthusiasm and ideals to others. The award is recommended by members of the Science Education Division.

PRIZES OPEN TO STUDENTS IN THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CHEMICAL ENGINEERS PRIZE is a badge awarded by the School of Chemical Engineering to a junior in chemical engineering for the best scholastic record at the end of the fourth term.

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF TESTING MATERIALS PRIZES, consisting of six one-year memberships in the Society, are awarded to students in the College of Engineering for the highest scholastic average in materials.

THE CHARLES LEE GRANDALL PRIZES of $75, $50, $35, and $20, established in 1916, are awarded by a committee appointed by the Director of the School of Civil Engineering to seniors and juniors of that School for the best papers on suitable subjects.

THE FUERTES MEDALS consist of two gold medals. They are awarded by the faculty of the School of Civil Engineering to the senior who has attended Cornell for two years and has maintained the highest scholarship, and to a graduate of the School, or a recipient of any Master's or Doctor's degree at Cornell with a major in the School, for a meritorious paper upon some engineering subject.

THE FUERTES MEMORIAL PRIZES IN PUBLIC SPEAKING. (See page 9.)

THE HAMILTON AWARD. A suitably engraved Hamilton watch and a letter of commendation are awarded annually to the senior in engineering who has most successfully combined proficiency in his major field of study with achievements, either academic, extracurricular, or a combination of both, in the social sciences and humanities.

THE INSTITUTE OF AERONAUTICAL SCIENCES PRIZE. The "Student Branch Scholastic Award" of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences is presented annually to the M.Aero.E. candidate who attains the best scholastic record for that academic year. The award consists of a certificate and a two-year free technical membership in the Institute.

THE SIBLEY PRIZES. Under a gift of Hiram Sibley made in 1884, the sum of $100 is awarded annually in several prizes to fifth-year students in mechanical engineering and electrical engineering, equally distributed, who have received the highest averages in the preceding four years.

THE SILENT HOIST AND CRANE COMPANY MATERIALS HANDLING PRIZE, established in 1950 by the Wunsch Foundation, is in an amount approximating $300. At the discretion of a College of Engineering faculty committee, it is awarded for the best original paper on the subject of materials handling. This contest is open to undergraduate and graduate students of the College of Engineering.

THE WILLIAM WAYNE KRANTZ AWARD, established by the Class of 1961 in the School of Electrical Engineering in memory of their classmate who died on August 6, 1960, is made to the fifth-year student in electrical engineering who has demonstrated qualities of perseverance, ambition, courage, and unwavering desire to become an electrical engineer. Award consists of a shingle and enrollment of the winner's name on a plaque in Phillips Hall.

THE J. G. WHITE PRIZES IN SPANISH. (See page 13.)

PRIZES OPEN TO STUDENTS IN THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

THE GRADUATE PRIZE IN PHILOSOPHY of $50 was established in 1912 and is awarded, by a committee appointed by the President, to the graduate student who submits the best paper embodying the results of research in the field of philosophy. The subject of the paper may be historical, critical, or constructive. It may be concerned either with problems of pure philosophy or with the philosophical bearing of the concepts and methods of the sciences. Papers must be submitted on or before the first day of May.*

THE GUILFORD ESSAY PRIZE of $120 is awarded annually, when funds permit, to that graduate student who, in the judgment of the Graduate faculty, writes the best English prose. Each competitor must submit, at or before 12 o'clock of the last Monday in November, a specimen of his English prose, preferably prepared as a normal part of his training in candidacy for an advanced degree.*

1. It is a condition imposed by the donor "that in case none of the undergraduate essays submitted in any given year shall, in the judgment of the faculty, reach a high standard of literary excellence, the prize shall not be awarded, and the income for that year shall be constituted a special scholarship to be assigned to that graduate student studying at the University who, in the judgment of the faculty, writes the best English prose."

2. Whenever a special scholarship shall be thus constituted, there shall be held during the first term of the ensuing academic year a competition therefor, open to all graduate students in the University. A graduate student in the meaning of this clause is any person who is registered in the Graduate School or who, being registered as an undergraduate, has already received an academic degree that would entitle him to register in the Graduate School. The Graduate School Office shall give due notice that this competition is open. (Funds are at present available for an annual prize for graduate students through at least 1964.)

3. The specimens shall be read and the special scholarship awarded by a committee of three professors appointed by the President from the faculty of the Graduate School. (See the Announcement of the Graduate School.)

* Papers submitted in competition for either the Graduate Prize in Philosophy or the Guilford Essay Prize must be typewritten (a clean ribbon copy), double-spaced, on bond paper, at least 1500 and not more than 5000 words in length, and signed with an assumed name, the real name and address of the competitor being enclosed in a sealed envelope, superscribed with the assumed name. They are to be deposited in the Office of the Graduate School.
